To learn more, visit the Wheel to Walk Foundation at www.wheeltowalk.com or call 503-257-1401.
Fundraising Opportunities

Earn Money While Shopping
Early Childhood CARES has partnered with eScrip for fundraising. eScrip is a hassle-free program for families to help raise funds for Early Childhood CARES through everyday purchases made at participating eScrip merchants. It doesn’t cost anything to participate and eScrip merchants will automatically donate a percentage of every purchase to a designated group of your choice.

To enroll, log on to www.escrip.com. Designate ECCARES (group #11129266) as the agency you want to support. Register the cards you use to shop with regularly (e.g. credit cards and membership cards, like the Safeway Club card). Shop at Market of Choice, Safeway or Macy’s, and Early Childhood CARES will benefit from the purchases you make. You can also shop at eScrip’s online mall. The online merchants including Land’s End, The Children’s Place, Barnes & Noble NOOK, 1-800-FLOWERS and Starbucks will give up to 12% of your purchases to Early Childhood CARES. Be sure to share the news with family and friends who may also enroll and register at eScrip, even if they do not live nearby.

Earn Money While Surfing the Net
GoodSearch, a search engine that donates 50 percent of its sponsored search revenue to charities designated by its users, is now contributing money to Early Childhood CARES. Visit GoodSearch at www.goodsearch.com. In the “Search, Shop or Dine” section, enter “Early Childhood CARES” for the favorite charity field. Then select, “Get Started.” You can then register by completing the fields, or you can select “continue without registering.” When finished, text will appear in the right-hand navigation that says, “I Support Early Childhood CARES – Eugene, Oregon.” Be sure to set GoodSearch as your search browser and help earn money for Early Childhood CARES.

Earn Money at the Gas Pump
SeQuential Biofuels, Inc. will donate five cents per gallon for fuel purchases and five percent of all store purchases to Early Childhood CARES. Make sure they write, “We support Early Childhood CARES” on your ticket. There are two locations in Eugene: 86714 McVay Highway and 1690 W. 18th Ave (corner of 18th & Chambers).

Getting Involved in Early Intervention/Early Childhood Special Education

Local Statutory Oversight Committee: Eugene, OR
The Statutory Oversight Committee (SOC) is comprised of service providers, community agencies, school district personnel and Early Childhood CARES families meeting to discuss fiscal issues and the delivery of services to children and their families. Meetings are from 9-10:30 a.m. at Early Childhood CARES, 299 E. 18th Ave., Eugene.

Childcare is not provided for SOC meetings; however, parents may request a $25 stipend which may be used to pay for self-arranged childcare. Please call 541-346-2578 for more information.

Getting Involved at the State Level

Oregon Disability Network
The Oregon Disability Network is a collaborative statewide network of disability organizations and their members, including people with disabilities, their families, friends, providers and policy makers. Members share information, learn about training events and empowerment opportunities and have the chance to voice their opinions on policy issues.

To join, complete the sign up form located on the "Get Connected" section on the Oregon Council on Developmental Disabilities website at www.ocdd.org. Fax the completed form to 503-945-9947 or mail to 540 24th Place NE, Salem, OR, 97301.

Alliance for Early Intervention
The Alliance for Early Intervention/Early Childhood Special Education (AEI) works with parents and professionals to advocate on behalf of early intervention and early childhood special education (EI/ECSE).

Visit the AEI website at http://www.oregonaei.org or on Facebook at http://www.facebook.com/OregonAEI to find updates about legislative issues, links to blogs and articles with an EI/ECSE focus. Monthly emails provide information about current services and opportunities to be involved and informed.
