

visiting scholar 11.6.09

Center for Community Arts & Cultural Policy and Emerging Leaders in the Arts Network

Visiting Scholar Series

~hosts~

Randy Cohen

*How Your Community Can Thrive
Through the Arts*

November 6, 2009, 2:00 - 3:30pm
Downtown Initiative for the Visual Arts (DIVA)
110 W. Broadway, Eugene

.....

Biography Randy Cohen

Randy Cohen is vice president of the Local Arts Advancement department at Americans for the Arts, the nation's advocacy organization for the arts. Randy is charged with ensuring that every community and arts organization in America is served by a local arts agency - and that every community in America is an environment where the arts can thrive. Combining the strengths of research, advocacy, professional development, and member services, Randy leads a team of 15 who strengthen the nation's network of 4,000 local arts agencies.

A member of the staff of Americans for the Arts since 1991, Randy is among the most noted experts in the field of arts funding, research, policy, and using the arts to address community development issues.

O

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE
AND
ALLIED ARTS
University of Oregon

How Your Community Can Thrive Through the Arts 11.6.09, 2-3:30pm

Through an informal town hall-style dialogue, Randy Cohen will describe how Americans for the Arts combines the strengths of research, advocacy, and professional development to ensure that communities across America thrive through the arts. At this session you will learn how Americans for the Arts can assist artists and arts organizations in our community to create an environment that supports a flourishing arts scene.

Co-sponsors for this event:

