

Beijing Opera School

北京戏曲艺术职业学院
Beijing Operal School

For more information please see the
Beijing Opera School website:
Http://www.bjxx.com.cn

Or contact:
No.8, Majiapudongli, Fengtai District,
Beijing, China, 100068

(86)010-67572221

北京戏曲艺术职业学院

History

Beijing Operal School was established in 1955. It changed into the present name and recruited the first undergraduates in 1978.

The School's mission is to inherit ancient and splendid performing arts and introducing and presenting them to the world

School owns a 600 seats theater,. Every sunday, the Beijing Opera department students and teachers will performance here.

Department

Performing Arts

Founded in 1950, the Department of Performing Arts is the first department in China that offers B.A. and M.F.A courses Several decades have witnessed the Department's rapid development and its graduates have functioned asbackbones in Chinese dramatic troupes.

Stage Arts

The Department of Performing Arts is the first department in China that offers B.A. and M.F.A courses Several decades have witnessed the Department's rapid development and its graduates have functioned as backbones in Chinese dramatic troupes.

Music Performance

The Department of Music is dedicated to the training of Xiqu musicians. Famous composers, performers and professors from other universities and research institutes from both home and abroad are often invited to give lectures to the students.

Dance Performance

The Department of Dance has majors of Dance Performance, Dance Creation & Production . After several decades cultivating, Department of Dance has provided plenty of talented artists for the local peformance groups, mass cultural depatments and educational organizations.

Show Time

Women Genders of The Yang Family

September ~ November Every Weekend 2:00pm-5:00pm

Farewell My Concubine

January~April Every Weekend 2:00pm-5:00pm

