

Oregon Humanities Center

2016–17 Robert F. and Evelyn Nelson Wulf Professorship in the Humanities and the Department of Anthropology presents

Gypsies in Film: Roma and the Media

Illustrated lecture by George Eli
Roma filmmaker

Monday, March 6, 2017
2 p.m. • 360 Condon Hall

George Eli is a pioneering Roma filmmaker and writer. He directed Searching for the Fourth Nail (2010), an intimate documentary about his family in the NYC area. He is the founder of Roma Media Initiative which aims to instill pride in the Roma people through the use of positive portrayals in varied media outlets—film, television, books, music, and web content. For the past two years he has organized gala benefit concerts in NYC.

Information:

csilverm@uoregon.edu or (541) 346-5114