This studio will be focused on the design of small structures made of mass plywood panels. We will be working with the Construction Technology Education Center in Salem to design and build 240 sf residential structures and will also be designing modular units that can be shipped, flat-packed, assembled, de-assembled and re-assembled. Freres Lumber in Lyons, OR will supply the plywood panels, a new mass timber product that will be unique to Oregon.