BI 199 Anatomy, Physiology and Weight Training- 4 credits graded

GRADING DESCRIPTION:

Fitness Testing- you will do a 6-8 rep max for the bench press and squat, as many pull ups as you can do (if you cannot do any you will use the assisted pull up machine), up to a 3 minute plank test and a 1 minute sit up test. You will do a pre test on 4/8/14 and a post test on 6/3/14. Each will be worth 15 points for a total of 30 points.

Lifting Technique and Safety- you will be evaluated on the rules of the weight room and your lifting technique throughout the term. This is worth 20 points.

Log Book- you will record all the lifts you do in class. It is important to see what you have done throughout the term. I will review these on the Monday of week 10. It is worth 10 points.

Quiz- you will have a quiz on Wednesday of week 6. It is worth 20 points.

Participation- you will be graded on being on time, working hard for the full 50 minutes and following all the course guidelines. It is worth 1 point per class for a total of 20 points.
