

Research Projects

Jean Kjellstrand, PhD
Assistant Professor
Counseling Psychology and Human Services

Current Research Projects

- Evaluating permanent supportive housing for individuals reentering the community after incarceration (funded by Third Sector Capital Partners). Mixed methods
- Feasibility study for the coached parent-child program for corrections-involved parents with a history of problematic opioid use (funded by UO).
- Community needs assessment for corrections-involved parents with a history of problematic opioid use (funded by UO); Mixed methods.
- Examination of the impact of parental incarceration on child development (funded by NIMH & NIDA)

Data Available from Completed Research Projects

- Randomized controlled trial (RCT) of a comprehensive community-based adult reentry mentoring program (funded by BJA & Oregon Criminal Justice Commission); Mixed methods
- Evaluation of a parenting intervention within prison (funded by NIMH).
- Examination of the impact of parental incarceration on child development (funded by NIMH & NIDA)