

Membership Form

Emerging Leaders in the Arts Network (ELAN) is a student-run professional development organization at the University of Oregon that cultivates leadership, dialogue, and engagement within the arts and culture community.

ELAN is an affiliate of the Americans for the Arts Emerging Leaders Network, and member organization of the Associated Students of the University of Oregon.

Membership Information

Current University of Oregon students in all departments interested in professional development and engagement in the arts sector are welcome to join ELAN. Membership is FREE.

Membership Requirements:

- Attend one of the three annual ELAN Open Forum meetings.
- Volunteer for one ELAN event or for a local community organization per academic year.
- Complete our FREE registration form.

Membership Benefits:

- Opportunities to connect with emerging arts professionals at the University of Oregon
- Networking events with local and national arts professionals
- Americans for the Arts Webinar sessions

For further information, please email uoelan@gmail.com.

Website: <http://blogs.uoregon.edu/elan/>

Facebook: www.facebook.com/uoelan

Membership Registration

Name: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Department: _____ School Year: _____

Please return this form to Emily Volkmann or via email at uoelan@gmail.com.