Reflections on the History of the Citizenship Controversy

Tuesday, November 15, 2011,
4:00–6:00 p.m.

Browsing Room, Knight Library
1501 Kincaid Street

Professor David G. Gutiérrez is in the Department of History at the University of California at San Diego. He is the author of Walls and Mirrors: Mexican Americans, Mexican Immigrants, and the Politics of Ethnicity (1995) and the editor of Between Two Worlds: Mexican Immigrants in the United States (1996) and The Columbia History of Latinos in the United States since 1960 (2004). His talk will focus on the historical controversy of citizenship politics in the U.S.

Professor Peggy Pascoe was a longtime ethnic studies executive committee member and later core faculty member whose commitment and passion are remembered dearly by her ethnic studies colleagues. To memorialize her unwavering dedication to the building of ethnic studies, we have instituted the annual Peggy Pascoe Memorial Lecture to honor her hard work and the care she selflessly devoted to the department.
