

FULBRIGHT

| f | i | t | a |

Incorporating Safety Awareness Into Daily College Life

iie The Power of International Education

UO Police Department

- Matthew Carmichael, Chief of Police

Goal

*Your UO Police.
The UO Police Department's goal is to help create an exceptionally safe, secure campus. We promote an inclusive, respectful environment for our global campus, and protect the free and civil exchange of ideas.*

We are police on campus, for campus.

UO Dean of Students – Prevention Services

Goal

- Kerry Frazee, Director of Prevention Services

On our campus, we look out for each other and are committed to proactively addressing high-risk behaviors. We are dedicated to creating a campus culture that is actively engaged in addressing issues of drug abuse and sexual violence in all their forms. Our efforts are focused on providing you with resources to help you have an exceptional experience without using drugs as a way to deal with stress or social pressures.

UO Counseling Center

- Suzie Stadelman, Education and Prevention Outreach Coordinator

Goal

We provide a variety of services including individual and group therapy, crisis support, consultation, and community referrals. All our services are free and confidential. Seeking support for one's well-being is a part of a fulfilling life, so we are here to support you and facilitate a positive college experience.

International Student & Scholar Services

- Paolo Daniele,
Advisor

Goal

ISSS builds on UO's tradition of valuing diversity and a global outlook by promoting international student and scholar mobility and serving as a resource for intercultural initiatives to the community. ISSS aims at providing quality services and programs by educating, advocating and training while complying with federal regulations governing international education exchange.

Questions?

