THE FOLKLORE PROGRAM IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE:

GRADUATE STUDENT
FOLKLORE RESEARCH AWARDS

DEADLINE MARCH 14, 2016 BY 5:00 PM

AWARD
Two $500 awards will be disbursed at the end of spring term to support graduate student research during the summer.

ELIGIBILITY
To be eligible to apply for a Graduate Student Folklore Research Award, you must be currently enrolled in the Folklore master’s program or in another program with an emphasis in Folklore (e.g. Folklore structured emphasis in English PhD program).

APPLICANTS SHOULD SUBMIT A 1-2 PAGE PROPOSAL THAT INCLUDES:
• A description of the project that specifies what will be accomplished in the summer.
• How the project contributes to your academic or professional goals.
• How the funds will be used.
• The significance of the project.
• A timeline.
• The name and email address of a faculty member who can speak to the merits of the project.

Funding can be used to: support fieldwork expenses, purchase research-related materials, travel to conferences or other professional activities, or other appropriate research related activities. If you have questions about eligibility, please contact Folklore Program Director Philip Scher at pscher@uoregon.edu or 541-346-5104.

DEADLINE:
All materials must be submitted via email attachment to Philip Scher, pscher@uoregon.edu, by March 14.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:
Students receiving financial aid should contact the Financial Aid Office prior to accepting this and other support because receiving additional financial resources may reduce their financial aid award.

Contact: Philip Scher, Folklore Program Director
Office: 319 Condon
Phone: 541-346-5104
Email: pscher@uoregon.edu