

3D Printed Object

Included in this kit is a 3D printed replica of one of the baskets that is in the exhibit. This was made by scanning the object, putting it into a computer program, and printing it with a 3D printer. This object can be handled by children so they can feel the textures and see more closely the shape of the object. This is meant to be a sensory experience.