

a large man was coming down the road, a man that, according to legend, (SAMI ELIA B2) ate people. He was coming down to find a meal. This man was afraid of 3 things - drums, singing, and women. Iya came down the road and told everyone to kill this man to save themselves, so they all came together, singing and banging drums. The man got scared and fell to the ground and died. They called him spider.
