

Outside the Academic Box: Careers after your Doctorate

Working in Social Media

Mon. Feb. 16th, 2015

10-11:30AM

EMU Walnut Room

Have you ever thought about applying your research skills to a career in social media?

Join us to hear Judd Antin, User Experience Researcher at Facebook, talk about his career path that includes research in Anthropology, Psychology, and Behavioral Economics, work at Yahoo, cofounding a startup, and a Ph.D. in Information Management Systems.

In partnership with the UO Graduate School

All graduate students and post-doctoral fellows welcome! Additional information at: <http://blogs.uoregon.edu/outsidetheacademicbox/>

The event is free but please register by emailing Evey Lennon at: evey@uoregon.edu.
