   University Committee on Sexual Orientation, Attraction, Gender Identity and Expression

2. 2) Brief Description:
   Serves the University of Oregon by ensuring that the concerns of the LGBTQIA+ campus community are acknowledged and addressed. The Committee strives to ensure that the UO is a welcoming and supportive campus for LGBTQIA+ students, faculty, staff, community members, and visitors.

3. 3) Background:

   The exact date of creation of the President’s Standing Committee for Gay, Lesbian and Bisexual Concerns is unknown, but a final revision to the suggested charge of the committee was received by the President’s Office on April 22, 1992. The charge was updated in 2001, 2005, 2009, 2014, and 2016

ORIGINAL POWERS & RESPONSIBILITIES:

The guiding aims of the committee are: a) to create a safe and secure campus for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender persons; b) to foster a sense of community among lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people at the University of Oregon; c) to work to eliminate all types of discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity in university programs, facilities, and services; d) to sponsor and encourage educational programs that promote increased tolerance and understanding on issues of sexual and gender diversity.

ORIGINAL MEMBERSHIP:

Was fixed by administrative decree: a) The regular membership committee of the committee shall consist of 4 faculty, 4 staff, and 4 students; b) The committee shall also include 9 ex-officio (non-voting) members, representing the Department of Public Safety, Academic Advising, Human Resources, Affirmative Action, President’s Office, LGBTQA, ASUO Multicultural Advocate, Outlaws, and University Housing; c) The committee shall appoint two co-chairs from among its members; d) The committee shall establish such sub-committees as necessary and invite other members of the university community to join these subcommittees; e) Regular faculty and staff members of the committee will normally serve two-year terms; students will serve one-year terms; f) the committee should make every effort to maintain an appropriate balance of teaching faculty, Officers of Administration, and classified staff g) Appointment of persons with demonstrated commitment to the goals of the committee is essential to its successful functioning. The committee should seek adequate representation in its membership of those persons who are openly gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender as well as people of color and other underrepresented groups.

ORIGINAL JURISDICTION:

More specific tasks of the committee include:

a) To monitor the progress of the university in addressing the concerns raised in the 1990 Report of the President’s Task Force on Lesbian & Gay concerns and, where necessary, to make further recommendations for addressing these concerns;
b) To review university policies, procedures, programs, and publications for any discriminatory impact they may have on lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender members of the campus community and to make recommendations to appropriate university departments for eliminating such discrimination;

c) To serve as a resource for faculty, staff, and students to provide information on university policies, procedures, and programs as these relate to lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender persons;

d) To sponsor and encourage educational programs that promote an increased understanding on issues of sexual and gender diversity.

e) To assist faculty in developing courses based on lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender topics, in incorporating material on these issues into existing courses, and in enhancing sensitivity to lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender concerns within the university curriculum generally;

f) To initiate, sponsor, and support public events that address issues of concern to the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender members of the campus community;

g) To promote study and research on lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender issues at the university;

h) To assist in arranging structured dialogues for university departments on lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender concerns;

i) To serve as a liaison with other university and community groups concerned with human rights, cultural diversity, and lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender rights.

4) Charge and Responsibilities:

17) Additional Information:

The committee shall establish such sub-committees as necessary and invite other members of the university community to join these subcommittees or give reports to the committee.

18) Comments [Will not appear on the committee website page]:

Appointment of members with demonstrated commitment to the charge and responsibilities of the committee is essential to its successful functioning. The committee on committees should attempt to appoint members to this committee whose identities represent the intersectionality within the LGBTQIA+ and ally community. A membership balance of sexual orientations, attractions, gender identities and expressions, ethnicities, (dis)abilities, as well as any other relevant underrepresented or traditionally marginalized identities is essential for this group’s functioning.
Members must be able to attend permanent meetings on the first and third Fridays of every month from 10:00 am to 11:30 am.
