Do it with passion or not at all.
